

Wee therefore out of Our Princely care hereof, as of a matter concerning Our owne honour, and the publique good of Our Subjects, haue thought fit, by, and with the aduice of Our Pruy Counsell, by this Our Proclamation, straitly to charge and command, that no person or persons of what estate, degree or condition soeuer hee be, doe presume from henceforth to bring into any Our Dominions for sale, or bent, or put to sale, vpon any pretence whatsoeuer, any Latine Authoꝝ, Booke or Bookes, printed in any the parts beyond the Seas, which haue bene, or shall be formerly and originally Printed in either of Our said Uniuersities of Oxford or Cambridge, vpon paine of Our high indignation and displeasure, and confiscation of the Bookes so brought ouer, or offered to be put to sale, and of such further penalties and punishments, as the contempt of this Our Royall commandement shall be found to deserue: And that no person or persons, vnder the like paines and penalties, doe presume to buy any such Booke or Bookes so reprinted in the parts beyond the Seas, so long as the said Booke or Bookes of the Print of either of Our said Uniuersities shall bee of ordinary sale. And to the end it may appeare what reprinted Bookes wee intend by this Our Proclamation to prohibite the buying or sale of, wee doe hereby require and command the Printers of both Our said Uniuersities, within one moneth next comming, to cause Certificate to be made vnder the hands of the Vice-Chancellors of Our said Uniuersities respectively, and deliuered to the Master and Wardens of the Company of Stationers London, for the time being, of all such Bookes originally Printed at either of Our said Uniuersities already extant, and in ordinary sale; And to cause like monethly Certificate to be made of all such other Bookes, as shall be hereafter from time to time originally printed there.

Giuen at Our Court at Theobalds, the three and twentieth day of March, in the two and twentieth yeere of Our Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland.

God saue the King.

Printed at London by Bonham Norton and Iohn Bill,
Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maiestie.
M. DC. XXIIII.

